

Mary Hambleton

Mary Hambleton shares her wisdom from a wealth of real world experiences and practical knowledge. As a mother of five, Mary understands the importance of combining fun with learning and will always have you moving, laughing and sharing as you gain insights from her “down to earth” style.

Mary has over 20 years of experience and success in real estate, travel, hospitality and other key industries. Because of her breadth of industry experience Mary can relate to almost any situation.

With dozens of specific and realistic examples to learn from, Mary’s high energy presentations are engaging, fun, interactive and loaded with tips, tricks and techniques to make you more valuable.

Training topics in which Mary specializes are teambuilding, interpersonal communications, conflict and stress management, leadership and personal development.

Industries of Experience

- Real Estate
- Hospitality
- Travel
- Health Care
- Banking
- Education
- Non-Profit

Mary is known for her ability to establish and maintain long lasting customer relationships and can help teach you to do the same.

Achieve excellence through Soul Canyon Training & Development courses facilitated by Mary. You will learn to fully develop the personal and professional skills necessary to become a crucial component of your organization.

---

Mary Hambleton is an experienced professional who has completed a rigorous certification program from Fred Pryor Seminars and CareerTrack to ensure she offers real-world experience in the courses she facilitates. She maintains her proficiency through industry-specific research, attending advanced seminars and collegiate courses, and communications with other experts in her field.

---